2. IDENTIFICATION OF THE CHILDREN. This parenting plan is for the following child born to, or adopted by the parties: (add additional lines as needed)

Name	Date of Birth	Age	Gender

3. JURISDICTION OF THE COURT

The United States is the country of habitual residence of the child.

The State of Florida maintains the most significant contacts with the child and is the most appropriate forum for addressing parenting contact and time-sharing.

The State of Florida is the child's home state for the purposes of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act.

This Parenting Plan is a child custody determination for the purposes of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, the International Child Abduction Remedies Act, 42 U.S.C. ss 1 1601 et seq., the Parental Kidnaping Prevention Act, and the Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction enacted at the Hague on October 25, 1980.

4. MANDATORY PROVISIONS. (These provisions apply even if one of the parties has sole parental responsibility below).

- a. Promoting Mutual Respect. Each party shall seek to promote and encourage the love and esteem of the child for the other party. Neither party shall intentionally do anything to estrange or alienate the child from the other party. Neither party shall make any derogatory remarks about the other party, or the other party's family, in the presence of the child, nor shall either party allow others to do so. Each party shall be pleasant and polite in communicating with the other party.

- b. Information Sharing. Unless otherwise indicated or ordered by the Court: Both parents shall have access to medical and school records pertaining to the child and shall be permitted to independently consult with any and all professionals involved with the child. The parents shall cooperate with each other in sharing information related to the health, education, and welfare of the child and they shall sign any necessary documentation ensuring that both parents have access to said records.

Each parent shall be responsible for obtaining records and reports directly from the school and health care providers.

Both parents have equal rights to inspect and receive governmental agency and law enforcement records concerning the child.

Both parents shall have equal and independent authority to confer with the child's school, day care, health care providers, and other programs with regard to the child's educational, emotional, and social progress.

Both parents shall be listed as "parents" and as "emergency contacts" for the child with schools, medical providers, extra-curricular activities, and the like.

Each parent has a continuing responsibility to provide his/her residential, mailing and contact address, e-mails and telephone numbers (including work, home and cell) to the other parent. Each parent shall notify the other parent in writing within 24 hours of any changes. Each parent shall notify the court in writing within seven (7) days of any changes in residential or mailing address or contact telephone numbers.

5. PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY AND DECISION MAKING

- a. Parental Responsibility. IN NEARLY ALL CASES PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY IS SHARED. ( Choose only one)

- Shared Parental Responsibility. It is in the best interests of the child that the parties have full parental rights and responsibility to confer and make major decisions affecting the welfare of the child. Major decisions include, but are not limited to, decisions about the child's education, healthcare, and other responsibilities unique to this family. Each parent shall make decisions regarding day-to-day care and control of each child while the child resides with or are with that parent. Regardless of the allocation of decision making in this Parenting Plan, either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child when the child is with that parent. A parent who makes an emergency decision shall share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possibly. With respect to non-emergency medical appointments of the child, the parent making any such appointment shall notify the other parent of the appointment as soon as the appointment is made and both parents may attend the appointment. IF THIS BOX IS CHECKED, THEN YOU MUST COMPLETE THE SECTION 4.b. BELOW.

Mother's Initials_____

Father's Initials_____

- OR       Sole Parental Responsibility. It is in the best interests of the child that the following parent shall have sole authority to make major decisions for the child:
( ✓ Choose only one)
             Mother     Father

However, each parent shall make decisions regarding day-to-day care and control of each child while the child is residing with or is with that parent. Regardless of the allocation of decision making in this Parenting Plan, either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child when the child is residing with or is with that parent. A parent who makes an emergency decision shall share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possibly. IF THIS BOX IS CHECKED, THEN YOU DO NOT NEED TO COMPLETE PARAGRAPH 4.b. BELOW, AND YOU MAY SKIP TO PARAGRAPH 5.

NOTE: IF THE PARTIES CANNOT AGREE ON WHETHER THE PARENTS SHOULD HAVE SHARED PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY, OR WHETHER ONE OF THE PARENTS SHOULD HAVE SOLE PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY, THEN THE COURT MUST AWARD SHARED PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY, UNLESS THE COURT FINDS THAT IT WOULD BE DETRIMENTAL TO THE CHILD FOR THE PARTIES TO HAVE SHARED PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY.

- b.      Details of Shared Parental Responsibility (DO NOT COMPLETE THIS SECTION IF ONE OF THE PARENTS HAS SOLE PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY). The parties shall share parental responsibility as set forth below. If a specific type of decision is not addressed below, then the parties shall make any such decision jointly.

- i.      Division of Shared Parental Responsibility Decisions. The major decisions regarding the child shall be shared between the Mother and Father as follows. (CHECK THE APPLICABLE BOXES BELOW. NOTE: IN MOST INSTANCES THESE DECISIONS ARE SHARED):

Education/Academic decisions	<input type="checkbox"/> Mother	<input type="checkbox"/> Father	<input type="checkbox"/> Both

ii. Extra-curricular Activities ( Check only one)

The parents are encouraged to make every effort to mutually agree to all extra-curricular activities. With respect to all such mutually agreed upon extra-curricular activities, the parent with the minor child shall transport the minor child to and/or from all mutually agreed upon extra-curricular activities, providing all necessary uniforms and equipment within the parent's possession.

If the parents cannot mutually agree upon an activity, either parent may register the child and allow them to participate in the activity when the child are with that parent.

The purpose of extra-curricular activities is not to infringe upon the time either parent has to spend with the child.

6. SCHEDULING.

a. School Calendar to be Utilized in Scheduling

As soon as possible prior to the start of each school year, both parents shall obtain a copy of the school calendar(s) for the next school year and create a time-sharing calendar following the child's academic calendar and the Parenting Plan specified herein. The parents shall discuss any differences between the calendars and reach an agreement for the following school year.

b. Schedule Changes

A parent making a request for a schedule change will make the request as soon as possible, but in any event no less than before the change is to occur.

If a parent is unable to care for the child during his/her time-sharing for one (1) or more overnights, then that parent shall give the other parent the right of first refusal to care for the child during that time prior to arranging alternate care for the child.

A parent requesting a change of schedule shall be responsible for any additional child care, or transportation costs caused by the change.

- c. Reasonable Accommodations The child has a right to spend considerable time with both parties. Each of the parties shall exercise the utmost good faith and shall consent to all reasonable requests by the other party regarding changes or accommodations to the time-sharing schedule. The parent who spends the majority of time with the child is expected to provide access to the child at unscheduled times, if requested, and if to do so does not unreasonably disrupt prior planned activities of the child and that parent.

7. TIME-SHARING SCHEDULE

- a. Designation of Parent With Whom the Child Will Spend the Majority of Time.
The child shall spend the majority of his/her/their time with the ( Choose only one)
 Mother  Father  Other (Explain: _____)

b. Weekday and Weekend Schedule During the School Year

The child shall spend time with the parent with whom the child will not spend the majority of their time, on the following days and times:

WEEKENDS:  Every  Every Other  Other (specify) _____
From _____ to _____

(Be sure to fill in the day of the week and the time of day).

WEEKDAYS: Specify days the day(s) of the week _____ From _____

If there is three (3) day weekend observed by the school of the child which is not provided for in the holiday schedule above, then the parent who would normally have that weekend shall be entitled to the extra day as part of his/her weekend.

The foregoing holiday schedule will take priority over the regular weekday, weekend, and summer schedules. If the form above for a holiday above is not specified as even, odd, or every year with the parent who spends less time with the child, then the child will remain with the parents in accordance with the regular weekday and weekend schedule set forth above.

When the parents are using an alternating weekend plan and the holiday schedule would result in one parent having the child for three (3) weekends in a row, the parents will exchange the following weekend, so that each has two weekends in a row before the regular alternating weekend pattern resumes.

NOTE: IF THE PARTIES CANNOT AGREE ON A SCHEDULE FOR THE FOREGOING HOLIDAYS, THEN THE COURT MAY DETERMINE THAT: THE MOTHER SHALL HAVE EASTER WEEKEND IN EVEN YEARS, MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND IN ODD YEARS, LABOR DAY WEEKEND IN EVEN YEARS, AND THANKSGIVING DAY AND WEEKEND IN ODD YEARS, AND THAT THE FATHER SHALL HAVE THE SAME TIME IN ALTERNATING YEARS.

a. Holiday/Winter Break ( Choose only one)

- The  Mother  Father shall have the child from the day and time school is dismissed for the Holiday/Winter break, until December 25th at 1 p.m. (if the parties live In Duval, Clay, Nassau or St. Johns Counties) or 1 p.m. on December 26th (if the parties do not live in Duval, Clay, Nassau or St. Johns Counties) in  odd-numbered years  even-numbered years  every year. If odd or even is chosen, then the other parent will have the child for the other part of the Holiday/Winter Break, and the parties shall alternate the arrangement each year. If every year is chosen, then the other parent will have the child for the other part of the Holiday/Winter Break every year.

- The  Mother  Father shall have the child for the entire Holiday/Winter Break during  odd-numbered years  even-numbered years  every year. If odd or even is chosen, then the other parent will have the child for the Holiday/Winter Break in the alternating year.
- Other: _____

NOTE: IF THE PARTIES CANNOT AGREE ON A THE FOREGOING SCHEDULE, THEN THE COURT MAY DETERMINE THAT IN EVEN YEARS THE MOTHER SHALL HAVE THE FIRST ONE-HALF OF THE HOLIDAY/WINTER BREAK UNTIL 1:00 P.M. ON DECEMBER 25TH, AND THE FATHER SHALL HAVE THE CHILD FROM 1:00 P.M. ON DECEMBER 25TH UNTIL THE DAY SCHOOL RESUMES, AND THAT THE PARTIES ALTERNATE THIS SCHEDULE IN ODD YEARS. ALTERNATIVELY, IF THE PARENTS CANNOT AGREE ON THE FOREGOING SCHEDULE, AND THE PARENTS LIVE MORE THAN 280 MILES FROM EACH OTHER, THEN THE COURT MAY DETERMINE THAT IN EVEN YEARS THE MOTHER SHALL HAVE THE FIRST ONE-HALF OF THE HOLIDAY/WINTER BREAK UNTIL 1:00 P.M. ON DECEMBER 26TH, AND THE FATHER SHALL HAVE THE CHILD FROM 1:00 P.M. ON DECEMBER 26TH UNTIL THE DAY PRIOR TO SCHOOL RESUMES, AND THAT THE PARTIES ALTERNATE THIS SCHEDULE IN ODD YEARS.

b. Spring Break ( Choose only one). NOTE: If Easter Weekend falls during Spring Break the parent with Spring Break shall have Easter Weekend.

- The parents shall follow the regular schedule.
- The parents shall alternative the entire Spring Break with the Mother having the child during the  odd-numbered years  even numbered years.
- The  Father  Mother shall have the child for the entire Spring Break every year.
- The Spring Break will be evenly divided. The first half of the spring Break will go to the parent whose regularly scheduled weekend falls on the first half and the second half going to the parent whose weekend falls during the second half.

c. Summer Break ( Choose only one)

- The parents shall follow the regular weekend and weekday schedule set forth above through the summer.
- The parent who does not spend the majority of the time with the child during the school year shall have the entire Summer Break from after school is out until before school starts and the other parent shall have the weekend and weekday visitation set forth above.
- The parents shall equally divide the Summer Break. During  odd-numbered years  even-numbered years, the  Mother  Father shall have the child from after school through one-half of the summer break. The other parent shall have the child for the second one-half of the summer break (except that the child shall be returned to the home where they spend the majority of their time one (1) week prior to the start of school). The parents shall alternative the first and second one-halves each year unless otherwise agreed. During the half of the Summer Break that the child is with parent who spends less time with the child, the parent who spends a majority of time with the child shall be entitled to the weekday and weekend time sharing which the parent who spends less time with the parent enjoys during the school year.
- Other (including any special schedules needed due to the age or other special needs of the child):_____
